

Are you ready or obliged to leave
Switzerland?

Do you need help organising your journey?

Return assistance improves your chances for a successful future. Get in touch and make an appointment for a return counselling!

Advice for prospective returnees is free-of-charge, noncommittal and confidential.

Return counselling does not oblige you to leave the country!

The offer of the Return Counselling is open to foreign nationality persons who live in canton Basel-Stadt.

The Return Counselling Service is provided by the canton Basel-Stadt in collaboration with the State Secretariat for Migration (SEM) and the International Organization for Migration (IOM).

Going home?

Return Counselling Service & Return Assistance

Sozialhilfe Basel-Stadt
Hardstrasse 95
Postfach 570
4007 Basel

061 267 58 61
061 267 58 62
061 267 58 64

Advisors for Prospective Returnees

- discuss your situation with you and the prospect of returning to your country of origin
- offer information about possible financial return or reintegration assistance
- offer information about returnee-support for people with health problems
- develop together with you the remigration budget and support you in the application procedure
- offer individual support with the planning of your journey
- offer information about refunds from Old Age and Survivors' Insurance (AHV), pension funds and security account reimbursement deductions
- offer information about formalities concerning your departure and take up contact, where possible, in your destination country
- offer support in your destination country due to cooperation with international partner organizations

Return Counselling Service & Return Assistance

Sozialhilfe Basel-Stadt

an der Hardstrasse 95, 1. Stock

Sie kommen zu uns mit dem
Tram Nr. 14 Haltestelle Grellingerstrasse

